Greentown Hometown Hero Criteria:

- Any person, who at any time or anywhere in their life experience(s), could or did lose their life due to the direct relationship of their commitment to our country by way of public service.
- A current or former resident of the Greentown area defined as residing in Jackson, Liberty or Union townships.
- ONE individual per ONE branch of service or department per application. (Example: If an individual served in the Army AND was an Indiana State Trooper, they need to choose which service to be represented on the banner.)

NOTE: If a family or individual would like a second banner representing a second service or a duplicate banner, the applicant would need to complete another application(s).

- Application for a new banner via:
 - Download and print application from: <https://www.greentownindiana.org>
 - Download the attached application
- Along with the completed, signed & dated application, a $115.00 fee is required, which covers the full cost of the banner. (GMSA derives zero income from this cost)
- Deliver this application and fee to Greentown's First Farmers Bank (ONLY THE GREENTOWN BRANCH CAN ACCEPT THE APPLICATION AND FEE)
- Or mail the application and fee (by way of check made out to "Greentown Main Street") to:

Greentown Main Street Association
P.O. Box 71
Greentown, In 46936

- .JPG Photos MUST be EMAILED TO GTOWNMARK@GMAIL.COM, and be in a high quality digital format.
- Multiple banners for the same hero requires a separate application along with a separate fee.
- Requests for banner locations are accepted and if possible approved, however the HTH banner committee has final approval on all banner locations.
